

reader Views

LOVE TO READ? ARE YOU AN EXPERIENCED BOOK REVIEWER, BLOGGER OR AUTHOR? JOIN OUR TEAM!

Before you complete the application form, please read the following guidelines.

If your application is accepted:

- You will read and review books, galleys, manuscripts, audio CDs, e-Books and DVDs in the genre of your choice. On the application form you will have a choice of what type of publication you will review. Reader Views will not endorse pornography or textbooks.
- You will advise Reader Views when you are ready for a book, picked from the Pending page to be sent to you. Please allow one week for mailing. You may read as many books as you want or as time allows. We require that you commit to at least 1 book per month.
- When you are available to review, please go to the Pending page and choose the books you would like to review. Send an email to admin@readerviews.com with your list. Reader Views will make arrangements to have the publication sent directly to you. In the event the item you receive doesn't capture your interest, please contact Reader Views immediately.
- When you receive the publication for review, you will notify Reader Views of receipt. We keep track of all the details pertaining to the review process.
- The book/galley/manuscript/ebook must be read, the DVD watched, or the audio CD listened to within 4 weeks of receipt. Upon completion you will write a review of 350–750 words (3–5 paragraphs) and e-mail it to Reader Views.
- Upon receipt of review from you, Reader Views staff will format the review for posting on the website. We also send the tear sheet to the author. All reviews are edited for punctuation and grammar before formatting. This process sometimes takes two weeks. Please do not tell the author/publisher that you have submitted the review to us. We will send them a tear sheet when the process is complete.

- There is no monetary compensation, however, you get to keep the publication. You may keep the publication, pass it on to a friend, or donate it to a charity.
- The review becomes the property of Reader Views. Reader Views will give the author permission to use the review in full or excerpts providing they credit the reviewer and Reader Views. (e.g. Reviewed by John/Jane Doe, Reader Views.)
- If you would like to post your review on other sites, arrangements may be made with Reader Views. Please do not post it without permission.
- Please do not contact the submitter (author, publisher, publicist) for other books to review or send the review directly to them.
- Reader Views provides an Express Review service. The same guidelines apply except the book must be read and reviewed sent within 21 days of receipt. Express Reviews are commissioned by the author or publisher. Reading a book within 21 days doesn't automatically constitute payment of a stipend. If you choose to be an express reviewer, you will be asked to do an Express Review, otherwise all reviews are considered as regular reviews. There is a stipend for Express Reviews.